

The following questions refer to the high-pressure system above. The stations are at points A, B, C, D.

1. Which station is reporting the highest winds?     A
2. The isobar label "C" would have a reading of what value?     240or1024.0
3. Which station would report a wind from the northwest?     B
4. Which station would probably report a rising barometer?     B
5. The station model below represents with station?     A

